

A Good Life

A good book, and a glass of wine. A fire warming their shoulders.

Rocking chairs help to pass the time, now that they're growing older.

It doesn't seem like that long ago. They fell in love with each other.

Bought a house and watched their children grow. She lived her dream as a mother.

Long walks on the beach, and holding hands by a stream.

It was no problem for them to reach, what others only could dream.

A good book, and a glass of wine. They reminisce by the fire light.

The rocking chairs help to pass the time. By any standard, a good life.
