

Enough For The Night - LIVE!

SPOKEN: Ah, here we go. Put your hands together now. Better yet, get on your feet!

Stars, so bright in the sky, can't be seen in the daylight. Try as hard as they might.

But they know, soon again they will fly, 'cause they're enough for the night.

When you and I get together the sparks fly. Feelings can't be denied.

In the day they might try to hide, but they're too much for the night.

SPOKEN: Are you feelin' it Kona?... I can't hear you!... (Screams)
