

What Do I Know

I know you think you know what I'm thinkin'.

And I think you know that everything you know ain't true.

And I think it's gonna take a whole lot of drinkin'

To get this to the next step, but what do I know?

I can't figure this out. I got fears and I got doubts. I got too much to think about.

Guess I'll let my heart make the deal, and just go with what I feel.

'Cause I think that's the only thing that's real.

But what do I know?

Yeah I know I can be a little short on attention.

But I've been tryin' real hard just to find some sign.

And I think with a little effort I can be in contention.

And what do I know, but maybe we could be just fine.

I can't figure this out. I got fears and I got doubts. I got too much to think about.

Guess I'll let my heart make the deal, and just go with what I feel.

'Cause I think that's the only thing that's real.

But what do I know?
